

Rep Raiders post wins

Georgetown's minor bantam AA Raiders skated to a 6-2 victory over visiting Minor Oaks of Oakville on Tuesday night to clinch a spot in the Ontario Minor Hockey Association championship series.

The Raiders won the best-of-5 semifinal over Minor Oaks 3-1 and will face off against the winner of the other semi between Aurora and Kingston, which is tied 1-1.

Marshall Harkins (2), Nick Deakin-Poot, John Vezina, Tyler Schouten and Josh Kerr tallied for the Raiders Tuesday.

In other action, Georgetown's Sunny Acre Farms midjet Raiders also won at home Tuesday evening, blanking Brampton 3-0 to even their best-of-5 OMHA semifinal series 2-2.

Owen Coulighan posted the shutout for Georgetown, with Mat Simpson, Alec Littlejohn and Connor Lohan providing the offence. Ben Nicolucci and Jesse Gunn had two assists each.

Game five will be played tonight (Thursday) at the Earncliffe Arena in Brampton at 8:10 p.m.

Briscoe powers Ryerson to Final Four

Georgetown's Chelsea Briscoe recently led Ryerson University's women's volleyball team to its first appearance in the OUA's Final Four since 2005 and the middle blocker was rewarded with a selection to the league's first all-star team. The second-year arts student, who was named the OUA's rookie of the year for 2011-12, finished the regular season ranked amongst the top ten in kills (178) and blocks (37.5), leading her team in each of these areas. The Rams, who also feature starting off-side hitter Chelsea Jensen and Lauren Sokolowski of Georgetown in their lineup, defeated the McMaster Marauders in the OUA quarterfinals before bowing out to the Ottawa Gee Gees in the semis held at York University. In the bronze medal match, Ryerson took on the Toronto Varsity Blues and 5-foot-11 middle Sarah Chapin of Georgetown, with the U of T winning in three straight sets.

Atom Twisters advance

Paige MacAulay of Georgetown scored the lone goal of the game in the third period and Milton's Danielle Paul earned the shutout as the North Halton Twisters Atom A team swept the Guelph Thunder with a second consecutive 1-0 win to earn a spot at the OWA Provincials to be played in Ottawa the first weekend in April.

The 1-0 win against Guelph in Georgetown on Thursday night comes on the heels of a 1-0 win over Guelph in Guelph last Tuesday when Rachel Zmigrodski posted the shutout and Nicole Campbell scored the lone goal.

Both were hard fought even games that hinged on neutral zone play, strong goaltending and opportunistic goals.

Georgetown and local players include defenseman Ailish McDonald, Madison Tate and captain Kathleen Reedman. Forwards include Addison Baldwin, Alyssa Tegelar, Emily Mowat, Emma Gormley, Grace Lounsbury, Madison Lindsay and assistant captain Paige Macaulay.

Head coach is Jeff Campbell of Milton.
