Local residents receive Jubilee Medals

Byron Thomas (right), a longtime resident of Georgetown, was recently presented with the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal by His Honour David Onley, Ontario's Lieutenant Governor. In a luncheon ceremony held in the ballroom at The King Edward Hotel in Toronto earlier this month, Thomas was awarded the honour for his years of volunteer work with the Monarchist League of Canada and his community service in promoting the Canadian Crown.

Roper Galloway of Georgetown was surprised and pleased to be awarded the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal this month, by the president of the Peel Regional Police Association Wayne Omardeen recently. Galloway was nominated for his work founding and managing the the Peel Regional Police Chief's Ceremonial band, as well as the Halton Hills concert band. Halton Hills musicians wishing to join the band can contact www.haltonhillconcertband.com.
