DEATHS

BROOKS, Marjorie Eva (nee Price)
Peacefully at the St. Joseph's Health Centre, Guelph, Ontario, on Thursday, April 4th, 2013. Born Marjorie Eva Price on May 9th, 1931 in Toronto. Marjorie was the wife of the late Roy Guelph Brooks for nearly 60 years. She was predeceased by her parents Frederick and Cora Price (nee Overholt), and the sister of the late Frederick Price. Marjorie was most proud of her family including daughters Catherine Woolner and husband Peter of Ethiopia (formerly of Kitchener), Laura Rees and husband Don of Ballinacra, Lyndsey Power of Guelph and Julie Fox and husband Rick of Oakville. She was the much loved grandmother to Christina, Jodie and Steven Woolner, Marcus, Mackenzie, Haleigh and Bethany Rees, Meghan and Ray Williams and Jaime Power and Ryan, Kelly and Jacqueline Fox. Marjorie worked at Canada Wire and Cable, Canadian General Electric, the Lung Association, Guelph Correctional Centre and the University of Guelph. She was a passionate volunteer giving over 70 years to the service of others including: Westmoreland United Church, I.O.D.E., Christmas Seal Campaign, Dublin United Church, Harcourt Memorial United Church, Wyndham House and Stroke Recovery Network. On October 20th, 2008 Marjorie received the prestigious Ontario Medal for Good Citizenship in the Ontario Legislature from The Honourable David C. Onley, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, for her exceptional long-term efforts in making outstanding contributions to the life of her community. Most recently she celebrated with Guelph Mayor Karen Farbridge and friends to recognize the 40th anniversary of Wyndham House, a group home for girls that she was instrumental in founding. Marjorie enjoyed her time singing in many choirs including the Light Shines, the beauty of nature, the occasional round of golf and the odd stray cat that came her way. Donations gratefully accepted to the Guelph General Hospital Foundation and Stroke Recovery Network. A Celebration of Life will follow at a later date.

DEATHS

Maria A. Jennings (nee Gow)
Died suddenly and without suffering, April 5th, 2013, at her home in Georgetown, Ontario.

Born March 15th, 1945, Maria is survived by her husband, Tony, her children Tim and Kate, their spouses Truly (Tim) and Bernd (Kate), and her grandson, Zachary (Tim, Truly), and by Philippe and Valerie Grasman and their daughters, Sophia and Isabel. She is also survived by her siblings (and their spouses and children): Harry (Jacinthe - Andrew, David, Philippe, and Jeremy), Diana (John - Sylvia and Ben), John (Heather - Sherrill, Christine, David, Michelle, Fraser and Matthew), her brothers-in-law (and their spouses and children): Douglas (Beverly - Chris and Derek), James (Lisa - Ainsley and Cassandra), Micheil (Erin - Andrew and James), Fraser (daughters Robyn and Brooke), her step-sisters: Rosamond and Maxine, and notably by her mother-in-law and god-mother, Sarah Jennings (nee Pepler). She was predeceased by her father, Col. Harry Gow Snr, her mother, Dorothy Vernon-Wood, her father-in-law, Ian Jennings, and her step-mother, Prudence (Morrison) Gow. She will be remembered as Mrs. J., Ma J., & Granny J. by her many "adopted" kids and grandkids: Christian, Marshal, Anne, Keith, Emma, Leah, Carolina, and Devon, among numerous others.

An innovative craftsperson who focused first on weaving, then pottery, she will be remembered by many who met her through "Creating Together" and "Mixed Media" (North York YWCA, George Brown College - Toronto), as Program Coordinator (Georgetown Y), and as a devoted volunteer (Park Public, Stewartrton, and GDH schools as well as the local theatre). The local arts and crafts community will remember her as a long term active member of the Credit Valley Artisans, a former retail crafts store operator (The Weaver's House), her time at Oxbow Books and as a founding organizer of "Artists among Us", a successful, annual, show and sale of local professional level artists and craftspersons.

In keeping with her wishes, cremation was immediate and private. There will be a gathering to share memories later in the year. Meanwhile, donations to the Canadian Cancer Society or an organization supporting arts, crafts or youth learning, would be welcomed.
