Willow Park Ecology Centre seeks volunteers of all ages

Willow Park Ecology Centre welcomes people of all ages to embrace an opportunity for fun and education! Families, youth, citizens and corporate or team building groups can volunteer in the 2013 Volunteer Program.

Starting on April 27 between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. suitable volunteers can act as leaders and/or helpers. The Park is a great place to meet others while enjoying the outdoors! Program days: May 12, June 8, July 14, Aug. 11, Sept. 8, Oct. 12.

This year, Willow Park has developed, Special May Youth Volunteer Thursdays held after school from 4-6 p.m. on the five Thursdays in May. Volunteers can register at www.willowparkecology.ca/Eventvols.html. Info: 905-702-9055.

During Community Event Day Programs volunteers can look forward to helping with interactive stations, kids programs and crafts, leading tours, assisting with theme specific activities and taking pictures for the Willow Park records and online postings. Spring events include Mother's Day, June 7th PA-day Presummer Fun, Big Daddy Festival Father's Day, July 14 Homecoming and Butterfly Day and August 11 an Art-In-th-Park partnership with Credit Valley Artisans. Volunteer at www.willowparkecology.ca.

Summer day camps will be held in July and the organization is looking for responsible student volunteers to build their resume through this practical experience. Info: tereasa@willowparkecology.ca.
