Members of The Gaudeamus Choirs of Halton Hills

Gaudeamus Choirs of Halton Hills present Come to the Fair, May 5

A wide ranging celebration of youth musical talent— that's what the Gaudeamus Choirs of Halton Hills offers at its annual Spring Concert on Sunday, May 5 at 3 p.m.

The concert theme is, Come to the Fair! The event will showcase the Gaudeamus Senior, Intermediate and ever popular Junior Choirs. In addition, Gaudeamus shares its stage with the Ensemble Kids Jr and Sr musical theatre groups. As well, the student string quartet known as High Strung, featuring 3 violins and cello, will perform. Another ensemble from GDHS will also make an appearance.

Something new this season— special desserts will be available at intermission, so bring a few extra coins. Proceeds from dessert sales go toward the Senior Choir's upcoming trip to Festival 500 in St. John's, NL in July. Georgetown's Bach Chorale will also join them there.

The Gaudeamus Spring Concert takes place at St. John's United Church, 11 Guelph St., Georgetown, under the direction of Diane Murray-Charrett, and featuring accompanist Carl Steinhauser.

Tickets are $20 for adults, and $15 for students, available at Silvercreek Café, at the door or from any senior choir member.

For info: email gaudeamus@cogeco.ca.
