Provincial champs on roll to nationals

It's been several years since an entry from Georgetown Bowl's adult leagues has qualified to compete in the Canadian championships, but a women's triples' team will travel to Edmonton in July in search of a national title. The threesome of (from left) Carmel Moriarity, Sandra Timleck and Lydia Dyba recently won the Ontario crown in the Club 55+ Triples' Team Championships in Burlington. The local trio finished first out of five teams with a pins-over-average score of 137 over four games, more than 50 points better than the runner-up. Dyba set the pace by earning the top POA score for the tourney in a single game and overall. A men's team from Georgetown Bowl, consisting of Rick Moore, Terry O'Hara and Jim Akers, placed second in the Men's 55+ division at the provincials in Burlington.
