Four local boys had an "awesome" time at Disney World in Florida last Wednesday thanks to Dreams Take Flight and the Georgetown Lions Club.

For several years the Lions Club has sponsored four local youth to take part in the Disney adventure arranged by the charitable organization Dreams Take Flight for children with various challenges.

Brothers Gregory and Jeffery Hensel and William and Joseph Wallace took the trip this year with Lions Club member Grant Harris.

Harris said the Air Canada flight took off at 6:30 a.m. with many kids flying for the first time including William and Joseph.

Eight-year-old Jeffery said the day was "awesome and Space Mountain was his favourite.

"It was really, really fun. I liked all of it," said Gregory, 10.

Mike Wallace said his sons William, 11, and Joseph, 9, "had a blast."

"I can't begin to describe the feeling of satisfaction after seeing the looks on the children's faces as excitement overwhelms them," said Harris. "There were so many heartwarming experiences that day I will keep with me for the rest of my life.

Food bank boost

Real estate agent Jacqui Gomez (middle) of Royal LePage Meadowtowne Realty presented Kevin Flynn of Georgetown Bread Basket with a cheque for $2,866 raised through the second annual Spring Raffle organized and sponsored by Gomez. Also on hand was, Hala Hawa, (right) also of Royal LePage who was a prize contributor and helped out with the raffle.
