Man injured by rototiller in stable condition

A man who suffered an injury to his leg when it was run over by a rototiller he was using Friday afternoon at a Fifth Line residence is in stable condition at a Hamilton Hospital.

Halton Police report the man, who is in his 60s, was using a walk-behind rototiller in his garden about 3:30 p.m. when a mishap caused the machine to come into contact with his leg. Police, EMS and Halton Hills Fire Department responded and firefighters took the machine apart to release the man's leg. A supply of blood was transported from Milton District Hospital. An ORNGE air ambulance responded and airlifted the man to Hamilton General Hospital.
