

Tickets are still available for popular Kiwanis Lobsterfest

By LOIS FRASER
Georgetown Kiwanis Club

The Georgetown Kiwanis Club is holding its annual Lobsterfest at the Gellert Centre on Friday, May 24 at 7 p.m.

The Kiwanis Club has pledged to raise $10,000 for the Georgetown Hospital expansion project for each of the next seven years, for a total of $70,000. Lobsterfest is the main fundraiser for this donation, so we hope the community will come and support this fun night out. Lobsterfest has been held for 20 years now and everyone knows how great it is.

Fresh lobster is flown in from the East Coast that very day and is cooked by Kiwanians right on the premises. Toronto company "Oyster Boy" (he's a rather large man really, so don't let the name fool you) will serve fresh oysters on the shell.

Landlubbers are welcome too and will enjoy top quality sirloin steak, supplied by Pete's Meats at Preston's Food Mart in Glen Williams. Add in Caesar salad, baked potatoes and goodies for dessert, it is a veritable feast!

We also have our DJ Sonic Sound to rock the night away and get rid of all those Crustacean calories.

Tickets are $75 (all-you-can-eat while

Georgetown Kiwanian David Ashbee took his turn toiling over a hot vat as he and his colleagues cooked more than 1,000 lobsters in preparation for Kiwanis Club's 2010 Lobsterfest. The 2013 Lobsterfest is set for Friday, May 24 at the Gellert Centre. The event aids the Georgetown Hospital.
