

In the May 9 edition Lydia Dyball's name was misspelled in a photo caption about Georgetown Bowl team taking top spot at the provincial team championships.

The Independent & Free Press apologizes for the error.

Acton resident Heather McIsaac hones her ring skills in a sparring session with a fellow teammate in Orangeville recently. "Mayhem" McIsaac has returned to the ring after sitting out a year due to a shoulder injury but she's earned her spot back on Team Ontario and figures to have a full slate of national and international tournaments this year.

McIsaac back for more 'Mayhem'

Acton resident and three-time national boxing champion Heather "Mayhem" McIsaac attended the Ontario Boxing Championships in March bringing home a silver medal in 54kg senior division, two divisions higher than her regular weight class of 48 kgs.

Because of that performance, McIsaac, 20, will represent Team Ontario at many national and international tournaments and events throughout the coming year.

After eight years of competing, this will be McIsaac's sixth time representing Ontario, but the first time she's been eligible to compete in the 2014 Commonwealth Games, 2015 Pan-American Games and the 2016 Olympic Games in Brazil.

Returning to the sport after a shoulder injury, which kept her out of the ring for a year, McIsaac has been training about 25 hours a week at the BigTyme Boxing Gym in Orangeville, under the tutelage of three time Canadian middleweight champion Byron Mackie.

Along with numerous local club shows and skills competitions throughout the year, McIsaac will be competing at The National Elite Boxing Championships in Regina, Saskatchewan in October, and this August will travel to Kansas City for the Ringside World Championships before heading to Ireland for a friendly scrimmage with Olympic prospect Ciere Smith.

Georgetown Candlelight Tributes

Candlelight Tributes honour and recognize the sacrifices and achievements of all those who served overseas and on the home front in the cause of Peace and Freedom. These ceremonies were held on May 2nd 2013 marking Victory in Europe Day (VE-Day).

The Georgetown Candlelight Tributes committee is an autonomous group of concerned citizens working independently from the Town of Halton Hills. The committee has a close association with the Royal Canadian Legion (Georgetown) Branch 120. The committee raises all funds for the project directly from the public. As well, all expenditures incurred are paid from the funds raised by the committee.

Please join us, the committee members of the Georgetown Candlelight Tributes, Barry Timleck, Tom Schenk, Shell Lawr, Dick Scheeringa, Bob McNeilly, Alison Murray Brown, Julia Stuart, Nell Ramakers, Dianne Penrice and Roy Preston in thanking all of the personal and business donors; community Service Clubs and Associations; volunteers and friends who so generously supported this worthwhile community project:
