Artist Erin Crowley opens solo exhibit at Williams Mill

The Williams Mill Gallery features artist Erin Crowley in a solo exhibition, Raining Texture, at the Williams Mill Gallery from Wednesday, May 22 to Sunday, June 2.

Crowley will host the Opening Wine & Cheese Reception on Thursday, May 23, 7-9:30 p.m. in the Gallery.

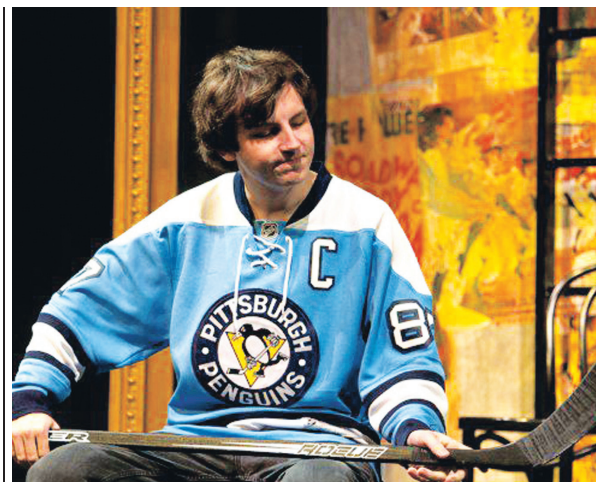

Crowley studied at OCAD, where she earned her Bachelor of Design in 2007. In 2010, she won a Leadership in Arts and Culture award for the County of Peterborough. She has been featured in several group exhibitions in Vancouver, Toronto and New York City. She has also held solo exhibitions in Peterborough and Montreal.

Crowley's artwork is considered mixed media on canvas. She builds texture by pressing found natural objects such as leaves, into acrylic plaster, and works on top of the texture with acrylic paints and gel mediums. Her artwork is inspired by natural landscapes and the duality of land versus sky.

Acton's Bruno Seiler as a member of Cash Grab.

Acton native returns home with troupe for one night show

Rumors, legends, myths and now... FACT! Yes, it is true! Cash Grab is coming to Acton to partake in a night of stand-up and sketch comedy on Friday, May 31, 7 p.m. at the Acton Town Hall Centre.

Come and be the first to see this up and coming sketch troupe right on the heels of their return from Montreal Sketchfest! These young comedians, including Acton's own Bruno Seiler, are here to keep you laughing into the night! (Be warned; mature content). Usually you have to head downtown to the Comedy Bar or The Rivoli to see them live but now, for just one night only, they are coming here.

Tickets are $15. Contact Bruno Seiler, 647-999-1003, brunseiler@gmail.com or Robert Bedard, 519-853-3437, robert.bedard@me.com

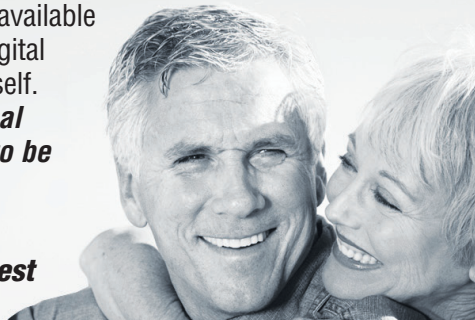

HEARING SCIENCES Audiology and Hearing Aid Centre

Yes, we have INVISIBLE hearing instruments!

Over the last 3 years, hearing instrument technology has advanced so they are small enough to fit deep into the ear canal allowing for use during active sports. This is one of many tiny options available. For some patients, the open fit option is preferred. These miniature options are available in all price ranges of high performance digital instruments. Hear the difference for yourself.

If you've forgotten what fair, professional service feels like, call us and prepare to be amazed! SATISFACTION GUARANTEED!
