Bulldogs extend unbeaten streak with pair of tough weekend victories

A pair of hard-fought road wins on the long weekend bumped up the Halton Hills Bulldogs' record to 5-0-0 to start the Ontario Jr. B Lacrosse League's regular season.

The 'Dogs made their annual trip east a little later in the schedule than usual and were well prepared for a couple of rough-and-tumble contests.

They defeated the Kahnawake Hunters 12-9 on Saturday evening after Tyler LeBlanc broke up a 9-9 tie in the third period with two quick goals.

Connor Brown (3), Adam Charalambides (2), Kurtis Oldham, Jake Perehiniak, Seth Laidlaw, Luke Laidlaw and Jayson

Crawford also tallied for the visitors.

On Sunday afternoon, Halton Hills outscored the opposition again in the final frame to pull off a 9-7 victory over the Akwesasne Indians near Montreal. Luke Laidlaw (3), Seth Laidlaw (2), Crawford, Charalambides, Brown and LeBlanc rounded out the scoring and netminder Gavin Lecky recorded both wins.

The Bulldogs played in Newmarket last night (Wednesday) against the 1-4 Saints and host the 2-2

Markham Ironmen Saturday at the Alcott Arena beginning at 7:30 p.m., followed by a trip to Port Credit Sunday to face the 2-4 Mississauga Tomahawks at 2 p.m.
