Relayers on the run

École Sacré-Cœur students (from left) Yasmina Tomkin, Charlotte Ready and Julia Sartoretto were among the dozens of kids who recently took part in the Canadian Cancer Society's Relay For Life at the school. In addition to the relay, the students also raised funds by selling cupcakes donated by Heather's Bakery of Georgetown. The Canadian Cancer Society will hold its annual Georgetown Relay For Life tomorrow (Friday) starting at 7 p.m. at the Croatian Centre on Winston Churchill Blvd.

Man sought for unprovoked attack on Acton senior

Halton Police are looking for a man responsible for an unprovoked attack on an Acton senior last Monday.

Police have released photos and video footage of the suspect.

On May 20, shortly before 3 p.m., a senior was walking his dog across Mill St. E. near Main St. N., when a vehicle travelling on the same street notably sped up, forcing the man to pick up his dog and hurriedly complete crossing the road.

The driver stopped his vehicle and verbally berated the man, forcing him to take refuge in a nearby store. The driver followed him into the store and forcibly shoved the senior to the ground.

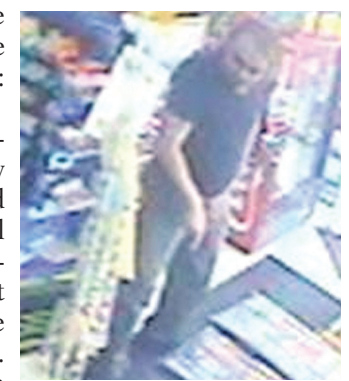

The senior sustained bruising and abrasions to portions of his body, as well as muscle damage to one of his limbs.

The suspect is described as male, white, 35-40 yrs of age, 6'0, 190 lbs, black shoulder length hair with a muscular build.

The suspect's vehicle is described as a grey mini-van, possibly a Dodge Caravan. To see video surveillance of the footage of the incident go to: <http://youtu.be/oHfdGn-Knv8>

Anyone with information concerning the incident or who may have witnessed the attack is asked to contact One District Criminal Investigations Bureau at 905-878-5511 ext. 2415, Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) through the web at www.haltoncrimestoppers.com or by texting "Tip201" with your message to 274637(crimes).
