ATTENTION GEORGETOWN AND AREA RESIDENTS

This is a public service announcement to warn you that Madison now has her driver's license.

She is a lovely girl, very bright, gets terrific grades in school - but dumb as a stick when it comes to directions.

If you encounter a tall, blond, very polite but somewhat bewildered looking girl - that means she is probably lost. Approach with caution and do not use words such as "north", "south", "east" and "west" when giving her directions. Madison does not know what these words mean - she thinks they are lyrics in a new Justin Bieber song. Use words such as "turn left at the big tree" or "go straight until you see a blue house" - these are the types of directions she understands.

Note to Madison: If you are ever again driving from Georgetown to Oakville and you see a sign for Niagara Falls, PLEASE TURN AROUND, INDEED YOU ARE GOING THE WRONG WAY!

Yes Madison, embarrassing my children really is quite a lot of fun and should keep me entertained until you have children of your own.

Love, Your Mother 😊
