

CELEBRATING OUR YOUTH

www.theIFP.ca
THE INDEPENDENT & FREE PRESS

Thursday, May 30, 2013

Special pullout section

4 Pages

Youth Recognition Award recipients (from left) Kaitlin Koppers, Jennifer Lewis, Marta Wegrzyn, Amanda Van Raven, Cindy Dziuba, Victoria Rapp, Harnoor Gill, Ian Taylor, Ivy Koo, Jessica Figuelredo, and Jessica Koppers.
Photo by Ted Brown

Local youth recognized for efforts

In celebration of International Youth Week earlier this month, the Mayor's Youth Action Committee (MYAC) hosted its Annual Halton Hills MYAC Youth Recognition Awards Ceremony. The purpose of these awards is to promote a positive image of young people and to generate awareness of the value and the contributions youth make in the community.

The Halton Hills Mayor's Youth Action Committee (MYAC) is a voluntary group of young individuals between the ages of 13 and 21 whose goal is to support and recognize their fellow youth and ensure that young voices are heard throughout the Town of Halton Hills. The main objective of this group is to act as an advocate for youth issues and to promote positive, meaningful recreational and social opportunities in partnership with the community.

In addition, winners and participants of our Annual Youth Art Competition were recognized. There was six winning art pieces selected in different categories for junior and senior participants.

Read about the MYAC Youth Recognition Award and Art Competition winners on the following pages.

Mayor Rick Bonnette joins Youth Recognition Award recipients (from left) Keerthiga Kulenthiran, Sarah Farrington, Natalie Shortt, Tamira Kraemer, Andrew Hilson, Amy Conroy, Riane Masse.
Photo by Ted Brown

The Town of Halton Hills celebrates the many contributions of youth and appreciates the vital role they have in our community.

from Mayor Rick Bonnette & Members of Council

