Classics show celebrates 26 years

Way back in 1988 a group of local car enthusiasts began hosting this exciting event.

Well-known local businessman Neil Young got together with fellow enthusiasts and volunteers with the local cancer society to plan a classical concert and garden party but Young came up with the idea of a classic car show instead.

Over the last 26 years this annual event has become one of the premier, juried classic auto shows in Ontario. It is always held on Father's
