

ROSE THEATRE BRAMPTON
summer theatre
Season 2013

SPIN
 JULY 4 | MAIN STAGE

Part theatre, part concert, part spoken word poetry, part documentary. Starring the bicycle as a muse, musical instrument and agent of social change, Evalyn Parry spins a web of stories which travel from 19th century women's emancipation to 21st century consumer culture. Inspired in part by the incredible true tale of Annie Londonderry - the first woman to ride around the world on a bicycle in 1894.

12 ANGRY MEN
 JULY 5-27 | STUDIO TWO

In one of the most compelling dramas presented on stage or screen, the fate of a young man accused of killing his father rests in the hands of jury of 12 men. The verdict must be unanimous and, if convicted, a death sentence is mandatory. What seems like an open-and-shut murder case becomes a twisted puzzle of prejudice and intrigue.

TICKETS FROM $24.65

LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS
 JULY 26-AUGUST 3 | MAIN STAGE

A down-and-out floral shop assistant, becomes an overnight sensation when he inadvertently raises a mysterious blood thirsty plant. The plant grows into an ill-tempered, foul-mouthed, R&B-singing carnivore who offers him fame and fortune in exchange for feeding its growing appetite. Laced with dark humour and an irresistible doo-wop/rock/Motown score, Little Shop of Horrors has been making audiences scream with laughter for decades.

TICKETS FROM $27.20

THE MELVILLE BOYS
 AUGUST 2-24 | STUDIO TWO

A relaxing weekend trip full of fishing, football, and beer is on the agenda for the Melville brothers. But their trip is thrown for a loop when the boys meet two attractive sisters who inadvertently change more than their weekend plans. In this modern Canadian classic, Norm Foster offers a tender, vigorous comedy about brotherhood and the unexpected.

Pakmen pair shine

Fourteen-year-olds Dylan Thring (left) and Tucker Johnson of Georgetown aren't used to tasting defeat with the Mississauga Pakmen under-15 boys' club volleyball team. The Pakmen lost just a handful of matches this year and captured the Ontario Tier I under-15 boys' title as well as the Canada West championship in Regina, also placing fifth in the under-16 provincials. The 6-foot-4 Johnson, a Grade 9 Christ the King student who and starting middle for the Pakmen, play who won the Ontario and Canadian Tier I championships last year. Thring is in his first year at GDHS and although he missed the Canada West finals due to an arm injury, Pakmen coach Ed Turalinski said that Thring was a versatile member of the team, primarily as a setter.
