

PETER & SUE MARROWS

Ann's Cartage Home, Office & Piano Movers Inc.

Ann's Cartage Home, Office, & Piano Movers Inc. was established in 1968 and has been serving all of Ontario as a successful local and long distance moving company ever since. Sole owner and operator, Peter Marrows started working for the company as a student and in 1988 went on to purchase the company outright. Growing up in Halton Hills for most of his life, Marrows has become well known and respected among the community.

"We take great pride in our work and meeting our customer's needs" says Marrows. "It's the little extras that people appreciate, and we do our best to relieve some of the stress that moving inevitably brings."

Specializing in piano moving, Ann's Cartage also does internal moves as well as moving the contents from your home, condominium, apartment, and office to anywhere in Ontario. All the trucks and staff are dispatched out of Halton Hills and no job is too big or too small.

This well established company is licensed and insured, and all staff are uniformed, trained, and bonded. Many customers over the years have come to know and love Marrows' son David for his great customer service, and Marrows son-in-law Greg Pentland, a long time employee who supervises the teams, for making sure every customer receives top notch service.

In business for over 40 years now, Ann's Cartage has steadily grown into a successful family owned and operated business that has earned the reputation of going the extra mile to meet the needs of its ever growing community.

CONSTANTINE KAROLIDIS

Constantine Karolidis, Halton Audiometric Centre

Constantine Karolidis of Halton Audiometric Centre has been helping people hear for more than 19 years. As a hearing instrument specialist registered with the Ontario Ministry of Health, and a member of the International Hearing Society, Constantine is able to perform hearing assessments and dispense a wide variety of hearing aids and assistive listening devices.

"Communication is critical in life. Jobs, relationships and social interactions are all more rewarding when we can confidently communicate - and hearing is vital to that" says Constantine. "Nearly 1 in 5 Canadian adults struggle with hearing loss, a figure that climbs to 1 in 3 for people over 65. The good news is, with today's modern advancements in hearing aid technology, there is no reason to 'just put up' with hearing loss anymore."

Born and raised in Georgetown, Constantine says "Helping people with their hearing is my passion and I'm very fortunate to be able to practice in a town that I love. It's very rewarding to have clients tell me the extensive positive impact our hearing aids have had on their lives."

If you or someone you know has difficulty hearing, or if you already have hearing aids and want to ensure you are receiving the most benefit you can from them, Halton Audiometric Centre invites you to call them for your complimentary assessment today.

CARRIE BURROWS

Carrie Burrows (Georgetown Fitness Boot Camp)

Georgetown Fitness Boot Camp owner-operator Carrie Burrows knows from personal experience that when you look better, you feel better.

"I was an overweight kid who became an obese teen," she says. "The summer before university, I was miserable and that was a turning point for me."

Carrie majored in kinesiology and lost 100 pounds. When she was pregnant, she gained the weight back and then lost it again.

"I've been through the weight loss process on my own," she says. "Now I get to help other people change their lives."

Over a four-week period, Carrie's boot campers meet for hour-long classes that combine cardio and strength training for a full body workout. She makes things challenging with different weights and equipment for each session. Classes are held outside during the spring and summer and move into school gyms during the cold seasons.

Carrie also provides one-on-one training and nutritional programs to help kids, adults and sports teams meet their fitness goals. Unlike a traditional gym, Georgetown Fitness Boot Camp provides a support system and holds its members accountable, so if you don't show up for class, you will get a call.

"Everybody is there for the same reason: to get healthy and get fit," Carrie says. "I love seeing how lives are changed by being healthy. Impacting people via their health is an unbelievable honour to have."

DR. FAIROZE POONAH

Fairoze Poonah considers himself a "people-person" so it makes sense that he has opted to devote his life to helping people by choosing a career as a physician.

"The interactions with patients is what I enjoy most," said Dr. Poonah, who began working at Dr. Kumar's clinic (83 Mill St. Suite 202) in August.

Following four years in medical school, Dr. Poonah graduated in October of 2009, started residency in July of 2010 and graduated in June of 2012.

"I also enjoy family medicine because it takes the illness experience into consideration rather than just the diagnosis," he said.

A Mississauga resident, he enjoys the proximity to Halton Hills.

Among his qualifications, he has an honours BSC at the University of Toronto, attended medical school in Belize, clinical training in Chicago and did his residency at St. Joseph's Hospital in Toronto.
