David Charles Holland Baker

David died peacefully at Georgetown District Hospital surrounded by his loved ones on February 12th, 2014 in his 85th year. David grew up in Montreal and graduated from McGill University with a Bachelor of Commerce. He obtained his Chartered Accountant designation in 1953. David and his family settled in Georgetown in the 1960s. He became actively involved in community activities including golf at North Halton Golf Club, the choir at St John's United Church and numerous bridge clubs. He and Isabel travelled extensively and enjoyed many winters in New Zealand. David was predeceased by his parents Evelyn Holland (1979) and John Lovell Baker (1980) and his wife Joan Ramsay (1992). David is survived by his wife, Isabel, his brother, John (Joyce), his children, Shelley (Rob Allison), David (Lynn Martin), Stephen (Debbie) and Susan (Peter Kortenaar), step children Gordon Thompson (Jane), Peter Thompson (Carolyn) and Evelyn Allan (Doug) and his grandchildren, Scott, Jennifer, Victoria, Kane, Christopher, Carolyn, Bryce, Lindsay, Julia, Lauren and Patrick. The family wishes to thank the staff at Georgetown District Hospital for the exceptional care David received. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his memory to Georgetown District Hospital or St. John's United Church. Visitation was held at Jones Funeral Home, 11582 Trafalgar Road, Georgetown at 2:00 to 4:00 and 7:00 to 9:00 pm on Friday, February 14th, 2014. The funeral service was held at St. John's United Church, 11 Guelph Street, Georgetown at 2:00 pm on Saturday February 15th, 2014.

Love from your Family & Friends

WHITING, Rud L. (July 30, 1930 - February 13, 2014) M.P. Halton 1968-1972

Rud has voted Liberal for the last time. Walked down his last fairway and sunk his last putt and is resting comfortably in the clubhouse.

He will be missed by his loving wife Sandra, children David (Jennifer), Stephen (Caroline), Paul, Jamie (Susan), Tracy (Richard), Lisa and Lori. Also survived by his siblings Pamela and Linda (John), nieces Nancy (Travis), Erika (Shaun), Kirsten (Karl) and twelve grandchildren.

Born July 30, 1930 in Montreal to Lester and Netta Whiting. The family moved to Oakville in 1946 where Rud attended Oakville Trafalgar High School.

Rud's passion for politics began when he was elected, while still in high school, President of the Young Liberals Association. In 1968 he won the Liberal nomination and went on to win the general election. While in Parliament he served on numerous standing committees, the most notable being Vice Chairman of the Public Accounts Committee.

After leaving politics, as he liked to put it, at the express wish of the electorate, he joined Heslop Industries, a land development company with holdings in Georgetown, Erin and Florida, as Marketing Manager. In 1981 he joined ReMax Suburban Real Estate and enjoyed a successful real estate career. In 1991 he and seven other agents bought the company. His peers elected him President. He later retired and he and Sandra moved to Ridgeway. It was during his retirement years that he took up golf and although not tour material that did not stop him from enjoying many happy and sometimes frustrating hours on the golf course.

At Rud's request cremation has taken place, and Rud would like you to join his family for a celebration of his life at his home at 103 Maple Leaf Avenue N., Ridgeway on Tuesday April 1 at 2PM.

The family wish to thank all the staff at the Palliative Care Unit at Douglas Memorial Hospital. They were angels.

Arrangements entrusted to Niagara Funeral Alternatives, 905-894-0120.
