Tickets are still available for Globe fundraiser

Tickets are still available for Making Memories for Kimm on Saturday, March 8, 8 p.m. at the John Elliott Theatre.

A group of 25 singers from Globe Productions are putting on a Broadway concert to celebrate the life of a 41-year-old Globe member with terminal branch cancer. A mom with two kids, ages 7 and 9, Kimm Fletcher's bucket list included performing on stage and she sang in two Globe shows, Jesus Christ Superstar and the Music of Andrew Lloyd Webber.

Given only a few months to live, her wish last fall was to "make more memories" with her kids, first by being there for Christmas and, if possible, attending her daughter's confirmation this coming June.

Fletcher is still going strong and her Globe friends want to entertain her with some great music, including songs that she sang with Globe. Her musical friends want to give Fletcher and her family another nice memory, to show her how much they care.

Tickets are $30 at the John Elliott box office 905-877-3700 and there will be tickets at the door.
