Flamenco dance company to appear at Acton Town Hall

Fin De Fiesta Flamenco presents Mala Yerba Nunca Muere at the Acton Town Hall Centre for one night only on Thursday, April 3, at 8 p.m.

Fin De Fiesta Flamenco is made up of guitarist and singer Dennis Duffin, singer and dancer Tamar Ilana and dancers Lia Grainger and Alexandra Talbot.

The group is currently touring their latest production, Mala Yerba Nunca Muere ("Wild Flowers Never Die"). The name is taken from an old Spanish idiom that describes the capacity to endure. At the core of this show is an exploration of flamenco's capacity to invoke striking contrasts, from delicate beauty to a fierceness that borders on carnal. From refined to raw, Mala Yerba Nunca Muere incorporates the traditional and the contemporary to create an electrifying portrait of an art form that shatters traditional stereotypes of beauty.

Tickets are $20 general admission, $18 students/seniors, available at Findefiesta.com and at The Roxy, 6 Mill St. E. in Acton.

Artists invited to submit work for summer show

Artists living and working in Halton Hills or those belonging to local arts organizations are invited to submit landscape themed work to be considered for the exhibition, Locally Grown 2014: Back to the Landscape to take place May 29 to Sept. 7.

Works may be in any medium and should not exceed 48 inches in any dimension. Works should be recent (completed within the last 24 months) and suitably prepared for presentation. Works previously exhibited in the Cultural Centre lobby are not eligible.

The exhibition will be selected by Helson Gallery Curator Judy Daley. Artists will be paid a small exhibition fee and will be able to offer their work for sale. The Town of Halton Hills charges a 20% commission on the sale of any work. Please note that works do not have to be for sale to be considered for the exhibition; please also note that submission does not guarantee inclusion in the exhibition. Submissions of work may be emailed to: judyd@haltonhills.ca. Please include your name in the subject line and submit by May 2, 2014.

For more details on submission requirements contact: Judy Daley, Curator, Helson Gallery. 905-877-7915 ext. 2536, judyd@haltonhills.ca
