

Perfect pair

The ice dancing pair of Cassandra Smith and Alisdair Kidd of Georgetown have enjoyed an excellent second season together in figure skating competitions, qualifying for the Skate Ontario STARskate Championships recently in Wellington, Ont. The 14-year-olds finished seventh in that event after a second-place result in the Senior Bronze Ice Dance category at the Dennis Silverthorne Memorial Invitational in St. Thomas and a sixth at the Western Ontario Section STARskate Championships in Caledonia in the juvenile Pattern Dance division. Smith is a member of the Preston Figure Skating Club and Kidd skates with the Guelph club, but is also a program assistant with the Georgetown Skating Club.
