

Deaths

BRAY, Joseph Paul
(November 22, 1963-March 21, 2014)

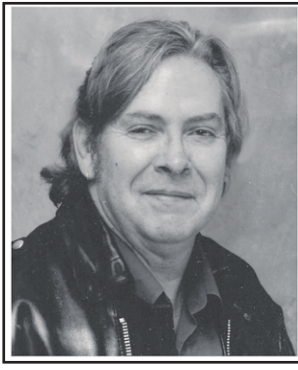

Peacefully but unexpectedly in his own home following a period of undiagnosed illness. Paul's passion for music was expressed through early participation in the Acton Citizen's Band. As an adult, he belonged to several bands and orchestras and shared his skills through teaching. Paul was also involved in choirs in the Guelph area both as participant and conductor. Additional interests included cooking, fishing and a fascination with Canadian history. Paul will be sadly missed by his parents Melanija and Joseph Bray of Acton; sister Melanie of Acton; brothers Mark (Sarah) of Oakville and Peter (Riina) of King City; nieces Tessa and Sophie and nephews Liam and Ronin.

A celebration of Paul's life will be held at Gilbert MacIntyre and Son Funeral Home, Dublin Chapel, 252 Dublin Street N., Guelph, on Saturday, May 17, 2014, at 2 p.m. As expressions of sympathy, donations to the Canadian Cancer Society would be greatly appreciated by the family. Cards are available at the funeral home at (519)822-4731. Online condolences can be made at www.gilbertmacintyreandson.com.

Card of Thanks

THE FAMILY of Joan Gilchrist would like to thank friends for their cards and kind words and gestures at the time of Joan's death. Thanks to the staff at Georgetown Hospital for their attention both recently in Emerge, and four years ago when she was in crisis. We are particularly grateful to the people at Extencicare, especially the Wildwood team and Dr. Furness, for their patience and thoughtfulness. You have added to her quality of life for the last six years since she chose to come and live in your facility. You are truly angels. We are also grateful to the Jones Funeral Home, special in so many ways, for your professionalism. Joan would have been pleased. It was exactly the way she wanted it.

Sincerely,
June Lenz and Family

BOULANGER FAMILY THANK YOU

Thank you from the Boulanger family to everyone who helped make Yvette's life easier in her final days, especially those at the Bennett Centre who were so compassionate and accommodating with her daily challenges. We also greatly appreciate friends who assisted with the funeral, from those who participated in the service with music and speaking to those who prepared refreshments and served at the reception.
