Georgetown Citizen of the Year Brenda Sisnett addresses the large crowd during her acceptance speech at the Lion's club award ceremony.

Georgetown Citizen of the Year Brenda Sisnett receives her award from Georgetown Lions Club award Chairperson Doug Penrice and President Louie Violo.

The Award

In 1973 The Georgetown Lions Club decided that recognition should be given to a citizen who has served his or her community in an outstanding way. The basis of the selection was to be on the recipient's achievements in the recent past or over a period of years, during which this citizen made outstanding contributions towards the community. The committee wishes to acknowledge and thank those Georgetown citizens who wrote to us and made nominations for the Citizen of the Year Award.

The Georgetown Lions Club was formed in 1931 to provide community service. The Club has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars, the funds are used locally, nationally and internationally to help society's most vulnerable people. For more information about the Lions Club please contact Lion Doug Penrice at 905-873-8469.

Georgetown Citizen of the Year Brenda Sisnett receives a plaque from Mayor Rick Bonnette on behalf of the town of Halton Hills.
