

Mayor came in at $125,893

on the Sunshine List, up from 29 in 2012.

There was actually a three-way tie for the top of the list amongst Halton Hills staffers as Edward DeSousa, director of corporate services and town treasurer, made $152,484 in 2013, the same as Chris Mills, director of infrastructure services, and director of recreation and parks, Terry Alyman.

Between the salary and benefits as Mayor of Halton Hills ($72,770) and his compensation from Halton Region ($53,123), Rick Bonnette cleared the $100,000 mark at $125,893, but didn't actually make the Sunshine List for 2013.

For the Halton District School Board, director David Euale was the highest paid employee at $227,880, while his counterpart at the Halton Catholic board, Michael Pautler, pulled in $202,224.38.

Meanwhile, Halton Region had nearly 500 people named on the 2013 Province of Ontario Sunshine list.

The list featured such returning figures as Commissioner and Medical Officer of Health Dr. Robert Nosal, who received $302,162.87 in salary and taxable benefits in 2013.

MAYOR

Assistant Medical Officer of Health and Director of Chronic Disease and Oral Health Dr. Monir Taha took home $263,670.59, while Halton's Chief Administrative Officer Jane MacCaskill earned $264,815.76 while Halton Region Chair Gary Carr's pay clocked in at $170,121.80.

Law enforcement didn't come cheaply in 2013 with Halton Police Chief Stephen Tanner taking home $286,779.91.

Halton Healthcare Services (HHS), which oversees Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital, as well as those in Milton and Georgetown, had 111 people on the Sunshine List, including president and CEO John Oliver, who received $477,689.76.

HHS Chief of Staff Lorne Martin earned $427,992.59 while Executive Director Denise Hardenne received $310,291.52.

Georgetown Hospital CEO and program leader Cindy McDonnell checked in at $146,425.74.

How likely are you or your partner to doze off or fall asleep in the following situations, in contrast to just feeling tired? This refers to daily life in recent times, if these things have not occurred recently, try to work out how they would have affected your partner.

Use the following scale and choose the most appropriate number for each situation:

- |                             |                               |
|-----------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 0 = Would never doze        | 2 = Moderate chance of dozing |
| 1 = Slight chance of dozing | 3 = High chance of dozing     |

- Sitting and reading _____
- Watching TV _____
- Sitting inactive in a public place (ex. theater or a meeting) _____
- As a passenger in a car for an hour without a break _____
- Lying down to rest in the afternoon when circumstances permit _____
- Sitting and talking to someone _____
- Sitting quietly after a lunch without alcohol _____
- In a car, while stopped for a few minutes in traffic _____

If you or your partner have a total score resulting in 4 or above please come into our clinic and we will provide a complimentary consultation. You or your partner may be exhibiting signs of snoring or sleep apnea. Both effect your requirement for a sound sleep and can have a profound effect on your health. The Georgetown Denture Clinic can provide an oral appliance to help prevent both snoring and/or sleep apnea from occurring. Introducing the new sound of sleep... SILENCE!
