

Willow Park needs some helping hands

Families, children, teens, and seniors can all play a part in helping Willow Park.

Check www.willowparkecology.ca for volunteer opportunities, times, and dates. As well, Willow Park has projects that count towards high school volunteer hours, and will also have special times on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings from 4-6 p.m. when high schoolers can work with others to learn more about the ecology of the area as they help to create safe habitats for local species.

See if any of the projects for this year appeal to you or your group. Maybe you would like to adopt a garden or look into one of our Stewardship or monitoring projects, or you might like to suggest something new!
