Rural residents to get break on burn permits

To help rural residents with the cleanup of downed branches from December's ice storm, the Town is giving them a break on the open air burn permit fee through July.

Residents are still required to get an annual burn permit through the Halton Hills Fire Department, but instead of paying the $23 fee, the fee will be adjusted to only $9, as it's waived for seven months.

Anyone who has already paid their fee will have next year's fee pro-rated when they renew.

Urban residents, who have yard waste pickup provided through Halton Region, aren't allowed to burn yard waste on their properties.

For information call the fire department at 905-877-1133.
