Fire causes $80,000 damage

A detached garage and its contents were destroyed in a fire at a 22 Sideroad Acton residence Saturday morning.

There was a motorcycle and various tools in the garage. Damage is estimated at approximately $80,000.

The fire started about 11:50 a.m. when it spread from a nearby burn pit where the homeowner was burning brush. A Halton Hills Fire Department spokesperson said the homeowner had a burn permit.

When firefighters arrived the garage was fully involved, and crews stopped the blaze from spreading to the nearby home.

"We would like to extend a big heartfelt thanks to the Halton Hills firefighters for their quick response to our garage fire on Saturday," said owners Dave and Dolores Black.
