Volunteers Light Up the Hills

Light Up the Hills— a totally volunteer-run organization— celebrated its volunteers at an event earlier this month at the Optimist Hall. Attending volunteers took time out to pose for this shot. Light Up the Hills relies on its volunteers and community donations to provide a Christmas lighting display every December at the Dominion Gardens Park, Acton Sports Park and for the first time this year, in Glen Williams. Only through the efforts of volunteers has this initiative continued to grow and there is a great need for volunteers. New volunteers are welcome to join the team, by going to www.lightupthehills.com or emailing info@lightupthehills.com or by contacting Light Up the Hills chair Gerry Kentner at kentner-scottage@cogeco.ca
