Lions offer free breakfast in exchange for food donations

More than 35 volunteers— Lions, Georgetown Bread Basket members and high school students— will be serving up free breakfasts at the fifth-annual Georgetown Lions Free Breakfast/Food Drive this weekend.

The two day event— April 26 and 27— will be held, 7 a.m. to noon, in the Heritage Hall (the new home of the Lions) in the Mold-Masters SportsPlex.

The full breakfast of eggs, bacon, hash browns, toast, juice, coffee and tea is free in exchange for food donations for the Georgetown Bread Basket.

The Lions tent will be outside the main doors collecting food, and handing out breakfast tickets. Any cash donations to the food bank will also get you and your family a free breakfast.

Items most needed by the Bread Basket are: canned juice, canned pasta, salmon, hot cereal, cookies, instant coffee, salt, canned pears/peaches, fruit cocktail, instant rice, whole grains. Go to www.georgetownbreadbasket.ca/shopping for the complete list.

The Georgetown Lions have been serving the community for more than 83 years, organizing the Santa Claus Parade and Georgetown Citizen of the Year, and contributing to the new library, minor sports, fall fairs, Classics Against Cancer, guide dogs and more.
