

Gaudeamus Choirs to 'Honour Earth' at Saturday concert

The young people of Gaudeamus Choirs invite one and all to fete Mother Earth at their upcoming spring concert, "Honour the Earth: A Celebration in Song."

The purpose of this concert, which takes place Saturday, April 26, 7 p.m. at St. John's United Church in Georgetown, is to "foster love of the environment through song, story and poetry," according to choir director Diane Murray-Charrett.

In addition to rich talent from the youth ages 6-18 of this well-travelled ensemble, special guest storyteller Goldie Spencer will contribute her gifts. Spencer's repertoire includes traditional folk and fairy tales, medieval and ancient civilization stories. Watch for other prominent local environmentalists to do special readings throughout the evening. The Halton Hills new Community Brand ambassador will be sharing exciting information about our community.

Tickets are $20 for adults, $15 for students and seniors. Available at Silver Creek Café in downtown Georgetown, or at the door. St. John's United, located at 11 Guelph Street, is fully accessible.

11 Critical Home Inspection Traps to be Aware of Weeks Before Listing Your Home for Sale

Georgetown - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale.

Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help homesellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.
