Hockey nights in Georgetown

Hockey greats Darcy Tucker and Wendel Clark stopped by the Georgetown Market Place mall last week to help celebrate the grand opening of phase two of the mall. Long lines of hockey fans, young and old, waited for the autographs from the retired NHL players. Top photo: Joshua Hervatin of Georgetown stretched across the table to have his leg autographed by hockey star Wendel Clark. Right photo: Retired NHL player Darcy Tucker greeted fans and signed autographs. For more photos go to www.theifp.ca

Frankie greets his admirers

Frank Ferragine, a.k.a Frankie Flowers, gardening expert for BT Toronto, City Line and City TV News, was the special guest on Saturday at the Georgetown Market Place Phase 2 opening weekend, which coincided with the Earth Week Sustainability Fair. A large crowd attended to listen to his tips on growing plants. Here, he autographs a copy of his book Power Plants for Marlene Tost.
