History of cycling is topic of Historical Society meeting

Author of CCM's history will be the guest speaker at the Esquesing Historical Society meeting on Wednesday, May 14, 7:30 pm. at Knox Presbyterian Church, Main Street, Georgetown.

In his book, Canada Cycle

& Motor: The CCM Story, author John A. McKenty traces the history of this familiar Canadian company from its formation in 1899 until its eventual demise in 1983. Along the way he demonstrates the dominant role CCM played in Canadian culture throughout the 20th century.

With its bikes in summer and skates in winter, CCM was as much a part of the Canadian psyche as the seasons themselves. But where did the company begin? Who was behind it? How did it come to dominate the Canadian bicycle and hockey market?

McKenty will use vintage photographs and company memorabilia to take a light-hearted look at the surprising answers to these and other questions regarding this iconic Canadian company.

Members of the public are welcome to this free meeting.
