

of our local students

*Owen Dolomont
Joseph Gibbons*

Owen is a respectful, kind, and mature Grade 5 student. He consistently demonstrates a positive attitude towards learning and readily encourages his peers. When making decisions, Owen considers various perspectives and is aware of the impact on others. Owen is involved in his school community by taking on various roles such as office helper, lunch helper, Tribes leader, and Kindergarten helper. Owen is a genuine and honest human being who emulates empathy.

*Brian Secord
McKenzie-Smith Bennett*

Brian, a Grade 8 student, consistently demonstrates leadership, maturity, responsibility and citizenship. Brian shows dedication to his schoolwork, and ensures he completes it with care and accuracy. He is kind and respectful to his peers and adults and is conscientious of their feelings. His care and compassion for others comes through his daily activities. He is willing to help out in all aspects of school life and seeks opportunities to develop his leadership. He is a participant in extra-curricular activities, both in the arts, academics, and athletics.

Katie Knechtel Pineview

Katie, a Grade 5 student, is recognized by both staff and her peers as a confident, quiet leader. She excels in her academics, always taking her work to the next level. When a job needs to be done, Katie takes it upon herself to assist in any way she can, without expecting any recognition. Katie genuinely cares for others and her thoughtful nature is always shown through her interactions with all members of the school community.

Megan Rohde Limehouse

Megan, a Grade 5 student, is always eager to learn and consistently puts forth her best effort on all tasks and assignments. She sets high expectations for herself and works hard to achieve her goals. She is actively involved in all areas of the school and community; drama club, grow it green club, peer mediator, track and field, volleyball, cross country, office helper, morning announcements and intramurals. Megan quietly takes on leadership roles and is always respectful of other people's thoughts and opinions.

Liam Flynn Park

Liam, a Grade 5 student, consistently demonstrates consideration and kindness toward others; whether he is reading with a Reading Buddy, performing his role as an Office Helper or volunteering to help out in the classroom. He is a strong student in all subject areas. He is an effective leader during group activities and makes a special effort to engage with everyone. He enjoys participating in extra-curricular activities including the cross-country team, Think Bowl and Battle of the Books.

Curtis Hopkins Robert Little

Curtis, a Grade 5 student, is a natural leader who inspires confidence in others. He is well mannered, friendly, helpful and outgoing. Curtis shows dedication to his academic achievement and is a skilled athlete. He demonstrates great expertise at balancing his sports, active involvement in clubs, volunteer work and his studies. He serves as a strong ambassador and role model for excellence at Robert Little School.
