Two men facing car break-in charges

Halton Police have charged two men in connection with an attempted break-in into a vehicle on Samuel Cr. Sunday afternoon.

Police were called by a resident who saw someone attempting to open a vehicle door at a neighbour's home then leave in a vehicle with another person shortly before 1 p.m.

Police found the vehicle in the Winston Churchill Blvd. and 10 Sideroad area and charged two occupants.

Charged with attempted theft is Daniel Fitzhenry, 19 of Brampton and Luc Lefebvre, 19, of Mississauga.

The two men also received a ticket for failing to leave when directed when they didn't leave the Georgetown police station lot when asked.

Police are seeking information from the public about an accident that occurred about 8:30 a.m. on Edward St. near Delrex Blvd. on Friday, May 23 in which a 15-year-old boy was struck by a slow moving car, but the driver didn't stop. The boy was not injured and continued walking to school.
