Former resident unveils his Greenwood work

Artist Ken Hall recently unveiled his latest work at the Greenwood Cemetery columbarium garden in Georgetown, which has been named the Serenity Monument.

Hall, a former Georgetown resident, was awarded the commission based on his memorial design featuring a stylized extrusion of a dove, creating a contemplative focal point that uses negative space to frame the sky and draw visitors' thoughts and spirits upwards.

Working in his Mulmur, Ont. studio, located north of Orangeville, Hall fabricated the sculpture out of welded aluminum with metallic gold and bronze coatings.

The new artwork component will enhance the existing contemplative columbarium garden area.

Town staff have added a new columbarium, Grace, which is a granite structure designed for cremated remains, to the area to address the increasing need for cremation interment options.

Why Ted Arnott on June 12th?

Ted Arnott puts our communities first. For almost 24 years as an MPP, in Opposition and in Government, he has effectively represented his constituents in the Ontario Legislature.

He works across party lines to get things done.

Ted Arnott insists quality health care must be there for our families, when we need it. He successfully pushed for provincial funding for the Georgetown Hospital renovations, for approval for a new Groves Hospital, and helped with the East Wellington Family Health Team. Long term care, home care, and services for seniors are amongst Ted's priorities.

Ted Arnott is trusted, experienced and dedicated.
