Sailing coach facing charges

A sailing coach in Burlington and Oakville is facing sexual assault charges after four male victims contacted Halton Police about incidents that occurred when they were between the ages of 13 and 16.

The accused turned himself into police.

Police say the accused volunteered for more than 10 years as a sail boat race coach.

The incidents spanned from Burlington, Oakville, Nepean and Kingston areas.

Police anticipate there will be numerous other victims that haven't yet been identified.

The accused is also currently volunteering at the Bronte Harbour Yacht Club, 2514 Lakeshore Rd. W. in Oakville, as head of the sailing school which includes the racing team, say police.

Charged with 16 Criminal Code offences pertaining to sexual assault, sexual interference, invitation to sexual touching and sexual exploitation is Sean Hewson, 31, of Ancaster.

Hewson has been held for a bail hearing in Milton court Friday.

Police ask anyone with information to contact Det. Sgt. John Mans of the Child Abuse and Sexual Assault Bureau at 905-465-8760.
