MILLER'S Scottish Bakery

*would once again like to thank TED ARNOTT
our M.P.P. for all his help when we needed it.*

3 years ago we became embroiled in a situation with "Red Tape" from the current regime.

Not expecting much we called Ted Arnott's office, and shortly after Mr. Arnott was in our store offering his help.

Ted Arnott fought our case right up to the floor of the Ontario Legislature, and in part we're only here today because he did.

During this difficult time, Mr. Arnott demonstrated to us that he's a thoroughly decent chap who really cares about his constituents.

We wish him well in next weeks elections.

Mark's opens in Georgetown Market Place

Mark's new store is now open in the expanded Georgetown Market Place, and features more than 12,500 sq. ft. of shopping space, with over 40 brands including Levi's, Denver Hayes, WindRiver and Carhartt. There is more than 20 sales staff working in the store located in the newly opened wing of the mall. The shop features both men's and women's wear, workwear and a casual footwear shop, which is new to the Georgetown store. Mark's Work Wearhouse district manager and local native Rod Wilson is pictured in front of the Canadian-owned chain's new location.
