Royal LePage Meadowtowne Realty Welcomes 6 New Realtors

Carol Bond

As a business graduate, Carol has enjoyed the last 20 years working in the advertising/sales industry and most recently marketing educational books to primary and secondary schools. Both areas she loved, but Real Estate has always been her true interest which is why at this time she has turned her sales and marketing strengths to helping customers buy and sell their homes. Carol, along with her husband, have raised 2 daughters in Georgetown. As a long time resident, she hopes to introduce clients to the small town communities and active lifestyle opportunities that families can enjoy in Halton Hills.

Sharon Leslie

Sharon Leslie has recently relocated from Ottawa and has extensive real estate experience in residential, condos, investment properties and rural properties. Her negotiating and problem solving skills are well known and she is highly respected by her peers. She grew up in Mississauga and previously worked in technology and has sales/service background. Sharon's availability and excellent service will always be her first priority. She's a straight shooter and extremely dependable. Her keen sense of work ethics can never be challenged.

Justin Jeffery

When it comes to real estate, Justin has a truly competitive edge. He not only has national caliber expertise in print marketing, magazine advertising, flyers, and in-store promotions, which he directly applies to promoting his Real Estate clients' properties, but he also understands how to use online marketing, social media, and mobile applications to broaden his reach and target his client's ideal buyer. Coupled with very strong negotiating and strategic skills, Justin can quickly and accurately analyze his clients' property and understand their goals in order to create a solid and realistic marketing plan that gets focused, reliable results.

Adam Williston

We are excited to announce that Adam will be starting a career in real estate and joining his stepmother, Susan Loughheed, who over the past 13 years has been active in real estate across Halton Hills. Adam is a recent graduate of Nipissing University where he earned a bachelor of commerce; he also has a marketing diploma from Sheridan College. He is looking to combine his education, energy & enthusiasm with Susan's wealth of knowledge & experience to provide exceptional services to our community. Adam enjoys playing recreational volleyball in Halton Hills. Adam is also an active member at the BAO Institute of Healthy Living. Originally from Burlington Adam is proud to call Georgetown his home for the past 7 years.

Marlena Melo

Marlena grew up in a traditional European home where she learned at a young age to always work hard in an honest and respectful way, while maintaining the utmost level of integrity. Having previous experience in hairstyling and running her own business, Marlena has built an exceptional professional network where exceeding her client's needs is always number one priority. She is extremely disciplined and is driven to succeed in every opportunity. Loving the sense of "Community" Halton has to offer, Marlena could not imagine herself growing her family anywhere else. She is proud to call Halton Hills home and is looking forward to helping fulfill your real estate needs today.

Tonya Hogan

Tonya is excited to be starting her real estate career as the newest member of the Paula Mitchell Group. Her cheerful demeanor and attention to detail will be a positive asset to the team. As a definite people person, her approach to real estate is to get to know her clients as real people and take care of them from beginning to end. Her education and experience in the customer service industry, along with her passion for working with people, will contribute to her success in finding you the perfect home. As a lifelong resident of Brampton, she knows the neighbourhoods inside and out and will help you select the best one for your family's needs. Tonya loves spending her spare time with her family and outside playing softball and volleyball.
