

What's Cookin': A platter of treats for Canada Day

Getting ready for Canada Day – can you tell? Every year, Dave and Gerry host a Canada Day party. This fantastic platter of treats was brought to the party by Gerry's long time friend, Kay d'Entremont. This was the biggest hit at last year's party – thanks Kay!

What a simple, fresh, wonderful idea. All you have to do is cut slices of seedless watermelon, then use a cookie cutter to cut shapes. You can cut circles as you see in the photo, or you could step out of the box even more and try using a maple leaf shaped cookie cutter! The key is, these are bite sized hors d'oeuvre, so you don't want to big a piece of watermelon. Once you've got that done, they just slice a bit of good quality feta cheese and place on top of the watermelon. Top that off with a Canada Day tooth-pick – and you're all set for your very own Canada Day party!

If you'd like to use the same flavours, but make it into a salad, you can cut cubes of watermelon and combine with small cubes of feta, a few small amount of thinly sliced red onion, some fresh basil leaves, just torn and tossed into the salad, coarse salt, freshly ground black pepper and good quality olive oil drizzled over the whole thing. Also a fresh and delicious change to the everyday salads.

Happy Canada Day everyone – have fun and keep cooking!
