Police and fire blotter: Nabbed at the garden centre

A Georgetown woman is facing charges after Halton Police interrupted a person loading into a cart more than $400 worth of items from the garden centre at the closed Real Canadian Superstore in Georgetown Tuesday evening.

Charged with theft under $5,000, fail to comply with a probation order and fail to comply with recognizance is Tania Brown, 40. Brown was held for a bail hearing.

Firefighters responded to a barn fire in the area of Eighth Line and Five Sideroad at 6:16 a.m. on June 22. The structure was a single storey barn/storage shed approximately 24 feet wide and 50 feet long. Quick actions by responding staff with the use of water and firefighting foam quickly brought the fully involved barn fire under control. Cause of the fire has been determined as accidental.

Firefighters responded to a fire at the Dominion Gardens play area at 2:13 a.m. June 21. Upon arrival crews located a small pile of clothing burning in the play area. The fire had damaged about a two foot square area of cork under the clothing.
