Friends, family support Snow's recovery

The support of family and friends has also helped get Snow through her amazing ordeal. Evely drove down to Florida with Snow and flew back after her recovery to keep her best friend company on the drive home.

Amazingly, Snow was feeling so well after leaving the hospital that she was able to pick Evely up at the airport.

"I just remember seeing her and I thought I was going to die," said Evely tearfully. "First of all, she didn't have cancer anymore. And she picked me up at the airport! Who does cancer three times and ends up like Tammy Snow?

She's just an absolute inspiration to everyone she knows."

The pair will be joined by five of their friends to take part in the Weekend to End Women's Cancers this September. Snow is serving as the captain of their team, named WTF: Walking to Fight, and hoping to raise $4,000 to $5,000 for the cause.

"I want women and young ladies growing up now not to have to go through what I've gone through," she said.
