Trendz Cut-a-Thon raises $7,500 for Food4Kids

Thanks to the community of Georgetown and Acton for its overwhelming support at the first Trendz Cut-a-thon, which raised more than $7,500 for Food4Kids.

Kate Carney and Angela Hunter-Cree and their amazing team of stylists donated proceeds from all of their haircuts between the hours of noon and eight p.m., said Leslie Salisbury, Community Relations Manager, Food4Kids, Halton North. Food4Kids feeds children at risk of food insecurity each weekend.

"A huge thank you to the Trendz team for donating their day and amazing talent, and to the awesome Halton Hills Firefighters for adding your enthusiasm and support to the event. Without you this day would not have been possible!" Salisbury said.
