

MPP Ted Arnott new critic for job creation

Wellington-Halton Hills MPP Ted Arnott has been appointed Ontario PC Critic to the Minister of Economic Development, Employment and Infrastructure.

"I want to thank our Leader Jim Wilson for the confidence he's placed in me. I'm looking forward to putting my experience to work in this important new responsibility," Arnott said.

Ontario's unemployment rate remains high at 7.3 per cent, according to Statistics Canada.

The province's jobless number has been higher than Canada's national average unemployment rate for over seven years.

"Clearly, the Liberal government's jobs strategy, if it has one, isn't working," Arnott said.

As Critic, it will be Arnott's role to hold the Minister of Economic Development, Employment and Infrastructure accountable in the Ontario Legislature, and at the same time propose constructive suggestions to strengthen Ontario's economy.

TED ARNOTT

He will also monitor the government's infrastructure spending.

"The government is planning to spend over $12 billion this year on infrastructure projects.

The Throne Speech boasted of a ten year, $130 billion infrastructure plan," Arnott went on.

"I want to ensure that there is honesty and fairness in the process, that the Ontario taxpayer is getting good value for money, that rural Ontario receives its fair share of available funding, and that sensible priorities are set."
