

Man charged after GO bus incident

An Acton man was charged after riders on a GO Transit bus complained about a passenger viewing pornographic material on his cell phone while committing a lewd act on Saturday.

GO Transit contacted Halton Regional Police about the incident and officers were waiting at a bus stop in Acton. The suspect was identified while leaving the bus and arrested.

Charged with committing an indecent act is Paul Philpott, 53.

Halton Regional Police laid weapons and drug charges on a Mississauga man at a RIDE spot check in Norval early Friday morning.

Officers spoke with the driver of a vehicle and developed grounds to believe the man was in possession of marijuana and when officers attempted to make an arrest, the suspect resisted.

A search revealed a small quantity of marijuana and brass knuckles. The man was taken into custody and later released on a promise to appear in court.

Charged with possession of a controlled substance, possession of a prohibited weapon, assault with intent to resist arrest and possession of a prohibited weapon contrary to probationary conditions is 26-year-old Brandon Dacosta.
