

Calls keep firefighters busy

Monday, July 7, anything.

3:33 p.m. – Firefighters responded to a burn complaint in the area of 10 Sideroad and Fourth Line. On arrival two large burn piles on fire were found approximately 8-by-8 feet. The owner did not have a permit and the fire was extinguished. The open air burn permit process was explained to the owner.

8:05 p.m. – Firefighters responded to an alarm activation in the area of Guelph Street and Brucewood Road. Staff met with the custodial staff that was cleaning when the alarm system activated. Crews investigating found a sprinkler head in the freezer room of the kitchen had activated and flooded the area. Firefighters assisted with cleanup and the water to the sprinklers in that area was shut down. The alarm was taken off line and building personnel was staying on site until the alarm/sprinkler technicians arrived to fix the problem.

9:30 p.m. – Firefighters responded to a burn complaint in the area of Steeles Avenue and Sixth Line. Staff searched the area and could not find

10:17 p.m. – Firefighters responded to an odour investigation on Split Maple Lane. Staff met with the homeowner on scene who advised that their daughter could smell a burning odour coming from the upstairs. Staff conducted a thorough search of the home using the multi-gas detectors and the carbon monoxide (CO) monitors and nothing was found. The homeowner was advised to call back if they smelled the odour again.

Tuesday, July 8

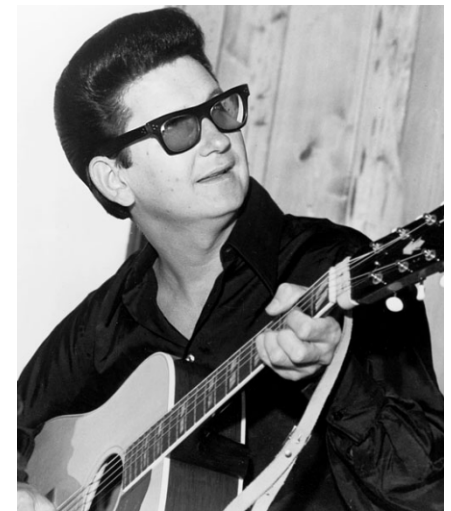

7:12 a.m. – Firefighters responded to an ambulance assist on Elizabeth Street. While en route, staff were advised they were no longer required.

7:19 a.m. – Firefighters responded to a single-vehicle motor vehicle collision in the area of Stewart MacLaren and Maple Avenue. A vehicle went off the road and down an embankment landing on its wheels on the rail tracks below. Ambulance and Halton Regional Police were on scene. Staff assisted ambulance with patient stabilization and transport.

ONE NIGHT ONLY!

“ROY ORBISON: SHADES OF YESTERDAY” COMING TO GEORGETOWN THEATRE

On Saturday August 16 at 8:00pm, the music and life of Roy Orbison will be celebrated in “Roy Orbison: Shades of Yesterday” a special theatrical event presented at the intimate John Elliott Theatre in Georgetown. Starring as Roy Orbison will be the incredible Bernie Jessome, widely regarded as one of North America’s finest Roy Orbison impersonators. In addition to capturing the trademark look of the music legend, Bernie’s amazing vocal range mirrors the remarkable, unmistakable presence of Orbison himself. This unique performance will mix favourite Orbison hits coupled with some interesting and witty dialogue relating to the music legend that Jessome learned while touring extensively with Roy’s brother Sam Orbison in “The Roy Orbison Story”.

“Roy Orbison: Shades of Yesterday” comes to the John Elliott Theatre on Saturday August 16.

all band members sharing lead vocal duties on hits by Bill Haley, Buddy Holly, Elvis Presley and more.

Tickets to see the “Roy Orbison: Shades of Yesterday” at the John Elliott Theatre in Georgetown on Saturday August 16th at 8:00pm are on sale now, value-priced at only $32 Adults / $29 Seniors & Students, available at the theatre box office, 9 Church Street Georgetown, by phone # (905) 877-3700, or on-line at www.HaltonHills.ca/theatre. Get your tickets early to ensure the best seats!

Joining Jessome on-stage will be Bill Culp and The Memphis Cats, a group of world-class musicians dedicated to authentically reproducing the sound of legendary artists such as Roy Orbison, Patsy Cline, and Elvis Presley. So in addition to performing Orbison hits, the Georgetown show will also feature a variety of 1950’s music from The Memphis Cats themselves, with

NEW AND USED SPORTS EQUIPMENT OUTLET SALE

SATURDAY JULY 26TH, 2014

TIME – 11:00 AM TO 3:00 PM

116 GUELPH STREET UNIT 6 – GEORGETOWN

COME OUT AND SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL
CHILDRENS CHARITY

GREAT DEALS ON ALL SPORTS EQUIPMENT

LIVE MUSIC AND GREAT FOOD

FOR EVERY $10 SPENT EARNS RAFFLE TICKETS FOR A

GRAND PRIZE

DON'T MISS THIS GREAT SALE – ALL PROCEEDS

GO TO CHARITY!!

ROY ORBISON
SHADES OF YESTERDAY

SATURDAY
AUGUST 16th
8:00 P.M.

TICKETS $32 / $29 SENIORS

JOHN ELLIOTT THEATRE
9 Church Street, Georgetown
905-877-3700
www.haltonhills.ca/theatre