Local residents Alysia Graham, Katie Charron and Jordan Boyer, longtime friends who had reunited to live together in Toronto, died in a fire in their Dovercourt Rd. residence on March 7. A one-day music festival will be held in their memory Aug. 8 at Nashville North and tickets are selling quickly.

thinking of a charity called SKETCH, because they were all artistically skilled people who were into drawing, photography and painting.”

Headlining the festival is Mississauga-based Ill Scarlett and a number of Halton Hills bands are on the bill, including Half Beat, Young Funerals, Real Life Situation and Chapter 64.

The all-indoors festival is scheduled to run from 3 p.m to midnight on Aug. 8, with an after party to follow.

Brown expects demand for tickets to grow when the headlining DJ is announced in the coming days.

“They had a very wide circle of friends and we’ve got about 500 tickets sold,” added Brown.

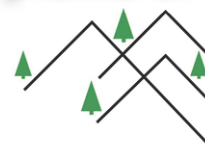

“This is something we’d like to do annually in their memory and I think next year it could be a whole lot bigger when we’re able to put a lot more time and money into it.”

Tickets are $35 in advance or $45 on the day of the festival and can be purchased at www.ticketscene.com.
