

Willow Park to host rescheduled Drum Circle

Willow Park Ecology Centre's Winter Solstice ceremony scheduled December 2013 had to be cancelled due to the big ice storm.

But it's not winter now— so it's time to celebrate on Sunday, Aug. 10 with a special drum circle in Willow Park Ecology Centre in Norval. Led by Sheila Black, the drum circle starts at 2 p.m. with an added special djembe session just for fun and entertainment after the circle has finished.

Bring your drums and your percussion instruments if you can, as you celebrate the environment as the original natives did long ago.

WPEC is building an Ojibwe Medicine Wheel under the direction of Ojibwe elder Anthony Templer with the assistance of WPEC Youth Volunteers and the CVC's Conservation Youth Corps, so while you are in the park, come bless the new wheel.

Supplies for the "Drum-Making for Kids" programs are urgently needed. If you have any large tin cans or coffee cans for the drum bases, please contact Carolyn at carolyn@willowparkecolony.ca.
