

Pop for Pups... and kittens too

Students from Academy of Music in Georgetown and Oakville will play the songs they love to raise money for the Oakville/Milton Humane Society, 4 p.m. at Saturday, Aug. 23.

"This is not your average recital," said James Franczek, the director at the Academy. "You will actually hear several different styles of music played from pop to rock to Celtic. We asked only that the kids avoid classical music for this show. There will be a wide variety of solos on voice, piano, guitar, violin, fiddle, and ukulele as well as a four-song performance by an Academy student rock band, The Flaming Llamas."

The concert will be held at the Pica-Deli Restaurant, 670 Fourth Line in Oakville.

Everyone is welcome to come out and enjoy the show. Tickets will be available at the door. The cost is $10 for adults and $5 for kids under 12. There will be a 50/50 draw and door prizes as well. All the profit goes directly to the Humane Society.

If you have a local business and would like to donate a gift certificate or a door prize please call the Academy of Music, 905-845-1227. For more information on the Academy visit www.academymusic.org
