

United Way of Halton Hills to kick off fall campaign

The United Way of Halton Hills will kick off the 2014 fall campaign at their 'Champions For Change' event on Saturday, Sept. 13.

This will be an annual event, with the theme changing from year to year. This year's theme "The World at Your Doorstep" will celebrate countries from around the world.

Everyone is invited to come out to the Club at North Halton for a fun and entertaining evening of international food, dance and a silent auction.

The evening will begin at 6:30 p.m. with cocktails from around the world, followed by a three-course meal from three continents.

The silent auction will feature a variety of unique and interesting items including local art, sports tickets, theme park passes and much more.

Local artist Laura Thompson will play keyboard throughout the evening and guests will enjoy a dance demonstration by South Pacific Dancers. Those who attend are encouraged to dress in international apparel.

Tickets are $65 per person, and can be purchased by calling the United Way office at 905-877-3066. Sponsorship and recognition packages are available by calling the office as well or by emailing United Way of Halton Hills Executive Director Janet Foster at unitedwayhh@bellnet.ca

All proceeds go to the United Way of Halton Hill's 2014 Fall Campaign, which supports the funding of 21 local social service agencies. The agencies provide programs and services to children, adults, families, seniors, people with disabilities and a helping hand to people in crisis situations.

"By supporting our event, you are changing lives," said Foster.
